MEDICINAL.

Headache may be called a woman's ailment. Some men suffer from it. But almost all women have to endure its pain with each recurring month. This fact points at once to the intimate relation between the health of the delicate womanly organs, and the general health of the whole body. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription banishes headache by banishing its cause. It cures the diseases which irritate the delicate womanly organs, fret the nerves and waste the strength. It increases the vitality and builds up the nervous system. "Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I want to praise your medicine," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Hursey, of Crescent City, Putnam Co., Fla. "I have been sick for twenty years, and have been almost in bed five years, and now I am able to work all day. I have taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of 'Felt's.' I praise your medicine to all. I had the headache but it is gone. My throat is well and cough gone, and all my old troubles are better. I tried many other kinds of medicine and four doctors."

THE PENSION OUTFIT.

In a Decoration Day speech before a Grand Army post General Grosvenor said: "We have paid more money for the benefit of the soldiers since the close of the war of '61 than all the nations of all the earth ever paid in all the history since the morning stars sang together for joy."

This is a somewhat poetical way of stating an astounding fact which may well arrest the attention of the country. We are now paying for some years back at the rate of a half million dollars a day for every working day of the year to the pensioners, and it is not enough to satisfy. This vast treasure goes to men who were brave and worthy soldiers and made honorable records in the army; to many unworthy soldiers; to deserters; to camp followers who never smelt powder; to "widows" who married veterans on the edge of the churchyard just to get widow's pensions. In short, the pensions are scattered, like rain and dew of heaven, upon the just and unjust alike.

The present head of the Pension Bureau has done reasonably well in adding names to the great roll of pensioners. Since July 1, 1900, 45,000 names of pensioners have been added, besides 50,000 certificates for increased or retroactive pensions and 94,000 certificates of all classes.

It would appear to the man on the outside who does not receive a pension check each quarter, and is not applying for one, that this shows a reasonable degree of activity upon the part of the Commissioner of Pensions. And yet his performance does not keep pace with the expectations of the country.

The cry is for more, more, and there is serious complaint against the Pension Commissioner in not being sympathetic and active in extending aid to the veteran, his widow, his sister and his cousin and his aunt.

There is one way of giving satisfaction and silencing every clamor, and perhaps only one way. That is to award an original pension to each person who can show that he votes the republican ticket. This would put it in the power of every citizen to get a pension. It would establish the republican party in power upon so firm a foundation that there would no longer be any danger to the gold standard. The rains might then descend and floods might come and winds might blow and beat up on that standard, but it would not fall. The trusts and tariff brokers would no longer be required to put up campaign funds to preserve the honor of the country. The colonial policy would be as safe as the gold standard and the tariff wall would be impregnable. If the President should want to break the record and have a third term it would only be necessary for him to say so. Why should such an opportunity be lost?—[Baltimore Sun.]

NAPOLEON'S STATUE FISHED OUT.
The statue of Napoleon I, which adorned the top of the Vendome column when during the reign of the Paris Commune the people pulled down the ungodly memorial standing in stupid glorification of war, has been fished out of the Seine after a mysterious disappearance of 30 years. The relic has been taken in charge by the State commission for the preservation of historical landmarks, of which this is considered the masterpiece.

A Good Cough Remedy.
It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van E. Lee, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following a gripe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for teething babies, Full-size bottle, 10c. Cures Wind Colic, Diarrhoea, Loss of Sleep, Griping Pains, Fever, Cholera Infantum. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup also promotes the digestion and soothes the baby. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

EXPOSURE to a sudden climatic change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh. Price 50 cents at Druggists, or Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cures and cures. Cream Balm quickly cures the cold.

Eczema, with rheum, tetter, chafing, itchy poisoning and all skin troubles are quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The certain cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

MEDICINAL.

Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure
A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating.

"After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amel Bell, Fredonia, Pa.
